CITY NEWS.

Governor Porter has gone to Jeffersonville to inspect the penitentiary south. Charles Woods, a Shelbyville grocer, had his arm broken on the Big Four train last evening. It protruded from the window and was struck by a freight car which his train

Mrs. Fannie Drake, who is suing for a divorce from her husband, Harry Drake, has applied for a writ of habeas corpus to secure possession of her child, now in the custody of the defendant.

The machine shops are reporting a dull business and in several cases first-class hauds have been discharged that expenses might be reduced. A revival of business, however, is expected before mid winter.

C. G. Franklin, a Wall street, New York, broker, is in the city, returning from a month's tour south and west, where he has been collecting facts and information likely to influence stocks and prices. A section of a grape vine ten inches in diameter is shown by the state geologists. It was recently received from Kentucky. Prof. Collect also has some cypress "knees," comical shaped oddities which grow from the roots of cypress trees. Two suits were filed against the Stockman Lee Machine company, this afternoon, for small amounts and the appointment of a receiver, but it is the understanding that a compromise will be reached that will not interfere with the company's business.

The fifth Indiana cavalry began a reunion meeting in G. A. R. hall, this afternoon, which will extend over until to-morrow. It is the first meeting of the regiment since 1868, and there is a goodly attendance. The fifth cavalry was organized by P.W. Graham, of Franklin county, and after a service of one year he retired and was succeeded in the colonelcy by T. H. Butler, of this city.

elcy by T. H. Butler, of this city. William Robinson, last evening, applied for a writ of habeas corpus, directed against his divorced wife, for possession of his daughter Ora, aged fourteen, whom he claimed was being improperly trained. The writ was made returnable before Judge Howe this morning, but at last accounts the girl had not been found, and the mother denied knowledge of her wherea-bouts. bouts.

Wilson Wiles, one of the foot pads, who robbed Mr. Welshans, of Brownsburg, was found guilty by a criminal court jury this afternoon, who recommended ten years penal servitude. Reynolds, co-defendant, is yet to be tried. The Miles verdict is a severe one, but it is evidently a good one, as the circumstances connected with the robbery make it a brutal affair. The effect will be salutary.

The Wabash Express Robbery.

The Wabash Courier, in speaking of the recent express robbery on the Wabash road, says: "There are some persons who have made inquiry into the matter disposed to connect the messenger with the robbery. It is claimed that the car door was left open on purpose, that the injuries sustained by the messenger were not sufficient to produce un-consciousness, and that the sound of two pistol shots must have alarmed either the engineer, fireman, or some per-son on the train; that, in short, the robbery son on the train; that, in short, the robbery was a preconcerted arrangement between the messenger and persons who were his confederates. With what degree of reason these claims are made it is as yet difficult to say. It certainly looks quite unreasonable to think that a person should suffer himself to be pounded up as Loomis was for the sake of sharing in such a sum as $1,500. The matter is receiving a thorough investigation, although up to the present time, as far as is known no clue to the perpetrators has been discovered, despite the fact that a large reward has been offered." Had the thieves robbed the train one day sooner they would have secured the handsome sum of $200,000, instead of the paltry sum of $1,500. Election Law Violators.

The election law relative to the sale or giving away of liquor and illegal voting was pretty thoroughly enforced, the patrolmen pretty thoroughly enforced, the patrolmen as a rule acting without fear or favor and bearing themselves as guardians of the peace, and not as heretofore, ward politicians. There was only one arrest under the alleged voting clause, that of William Dyer, colored, of the Twelfth ward, who was challenged at both precincts, and because of his persistence was "collared." The evidence this morning before the mary showed that he was "collared." The evidence this morning before the mayor showed that he had a residence in the ward, but was confused relative to the precinct boundary, and hence the case was dismissed. The arrests under the liquor act included James Weller, Thomas Gray, Louis Hillman, Mrs. Luella Murphy, Joseph Martin and Robert Klempf, and the offense in each case was in giving away alcoholic drinks. The last-mentioned pleaded not guilty to-day before the mayor and was continued for trial until to-morrow. The remaining defendants were fined.

The Little Case Affrmed. The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the court below in the case of Joseph Little vs. The State, and Mr. Little will now be compelled to pay the $50 fine and costs imposed by Judge Norton, of the criminal bench, for attempting to extort money from Captain Jeter under the plea money from Captain Jeter under the plea that he (Little) could influence the jury in behalf of Inc. murderer of Hugh Burns. when an intimation of this attempt reached Judge Norton's ears, Little was brought upstanding, so to speak, and in addition to the flue was committed for ten days. A more astonished individual was never seen, and now that the supreme court has sustained Judge Norton's, ruling, the effects will not only be salutary, but it will be taken as fair warning that the criminal court is a dangerous machine to fool with. It is always loaded. By the way, this is the first case to be ap-

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH. HOADLY AHEAD

The Returns from Ohio Indicate Democratic Success.

Although Hope is Not Entirely Abandoned by Republicans, Who Make Some Gain?.

The Prohibition Amendment in Doubt-Iowa Elects a Republican Ticket by About 30,000 Majority.

OHIO. Hoadly and a Democratic Legislature Believed to be Elected.

COLUMBUS, October 10 .- No additional returns of consequence have been received here this morning, except private dispatches and scattering telegrams. On what has been received, the democrats claim Hoadly's elec-tion by 9,000 and the legislature. They claim Hoadly is running ahead at Cincinnati and will have 4,000 majority in Hamilton county. The republican committee think Hoadly's majority will be 3,000 or 4,000, but majority will be 3,000 or 4,000, but that Rose will be elected lieutenant-governor. Governor Foster thinks Hoadly's chances the best, but does not abandon hope of either the governor or legislature. The latest from Cleveland indicates that Hoadly has a small majority in Cuyahoga county, with the legislative ticket four democrats and two republicans. At headquarters, the republicans are still hoping for a change. The democrats claim the legislature by five and the republicans the senate by one. senate by one.

Newspaper-Comment

Newspaper-Comment.

CINCINNATI, October 10.—The Commercial Gazette, in its last edition this morning says: "The impression prevails that Hoadly is elected governor by from 5,000 to 8,000 majority. Full returns may give a different result, but the outlook is not favorable. The legislature is in doubt, but claimed by both sides. The second amendment vote is large but it will probably be defeated by the Cincinnati vote."

The Enquirer says: "The best indications as we got opress are that the democratic state ticket is elected; that the Hamilton county democratic ticket is elected, and that the legislature will be democratic. But the vote is too close and the returns too slow to enable us to write more than approximately. The constitutional amendment providing for the regulation of the liquor traffic appears to be beaten, but the second (prohibition) amendment has a tremendous vote, and, unless the returns are unduly colored in its favor, it is adopted."

Great Republican Gains in Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, October 10.—Counting the returns is in confusion in this county. Owing to the very late work the morning newspapers have barely a suggestion of the detailed vote. Every body is worn out, and the progress to-day is slow. The best estimate on Hamilton county, from additional returns received this morning, give Hoadly a majoron Hamilton county, from additional returns received this morning, give Hoadly a majority of from 1,500 to 2,500, with the legislative and county ticket either divided or democrats defeated. This is based on returns from seventy-three out of 103 precincts, and may be modified either way by subsequent returns. As near as can be estimated, the majority accepts the second extendent will are jority against the second amendment will exceed 40,000.

Cuyahoga's Vote a Surprise Cuyahoga's Vote a Surprise.

CLEVELAND, October 10.—Returns come in slowly. At 10 o'clock this morning, with two wards to hear from, indications are that Hoadly carries this county by a small majority. Rose, republican candidate for lieutenant-governor, by about 2,000. Whitehook by about 2,000: Wh republican candidate for county treasure by 1,000 to 1,500. Probably one democrat and one republican senator are elected, and four democrats and two republican repre-sentatives. The remainder of the democratic county ticket is probably elected, except, perhaps, county auditor, Complete returns may change this somewhat. The result is a surprise to both parties. The second amendment vote is not fully counted.

Noon—The result of the election in this county is still indefinite. The official count may be required to decide some cases. The republicans probably elect one judge, and perhaps three of the six representatives.

Richard Smith Is Not Despondent. Richard Smith Is Not Despondent.
CINCINNATI, October 10.—Richard Smith, of the Commercial-Gazette, did not watch the returns last night, but to-day, after looking over the field, said he did not regard Foraker defeated. At previous elections news of democratic success in the election of governors had been heralded by democratic papers on the morning after election, and conceded by republicans, and yet the later returns wholly changed the aspect of affairs. He regards the precincts not yet later returns wholly changed the aspect of affairs. He regards the precincts not yet heard from as likely to produce greater republican gains. As to the causes for the practical republican defeat, Mr. Smith says Foraker lost votes from both parties, on account of the temperance issue. He thought, also, the wool-growers and wine-growers opposed him.

Clark county—Foraker's official majority, 1,464; a republican gain of 599. The entire republican county ticket is elected.

Paulding county—Gives Hoadly 26 majority; loss 69. The second amendment has a majority of 212.

Larger Than was Expected-Republican Majority, 25,000 to 30,000.

DES MOINES, October 10.-Returns ceived up to this hour increase rather than decrease the estimate of the republican state committee sent at 3 o'clock, showing fortyseven republican members of the house elected, thirty democrats, and twenty-three unreported, of which the republicans twelve certainly.

CHICAGO, October 10.—The Tribune's re sume of the Iowa election says, "At this hour of writing, 3 o'clock a, m., the indica tions are that Iowa has been carried by the republicans by a majority of from 25,000 to 30,000. The democratic gains in river counties were not as heavy as was expected. In Scott county, for example, the vote, relatively, is the same as that for secretary of state last year. In Dubuque county the democratic majority was less. The republicans, on the other hand, made some losses in interior ities where gains were ex-ed. The vote for the republican eme court judge, nominated to ace Judge Day on account of the supposed hostility of the latter to the prohibi-tion amendment, was not much smaller than that for Governor Sherman.

In the Sixth congressional district the con-test to fill the vacancy caused by the death of M. L. Cutts, republican, is very close, with indications eligitly in favor of the re-publican candidate, E. H. Stiles."

Republican Majority Increasing. Republican Majority Increasing.

DES MOINES, October 10, 11 a. m.—Returns received by the State Register up to this hour increase the republican majority in the legislative reports and summary made at 5 o'clock this morning. Eighteen out of twenty-nine new senators elected are republicans, and definite returns give fifty-one republican members of the house elected to twenty-nine democrats. Of the twenty unreported, the republicans will probably elect thirteen. The house stands sixty-four republicans to forty-six democrats. Six of the eleven other new senators will probably stand republican and five democrats. The republican majority on joint ballot will be between forty-five and fifty. five democrats. The republican majority on joint ballot will be between forty-five and fifty.

Later returns indicate the election of Stiles

(rep.) to congress in the sixth district, by a small majority.

CHICAGO, October 10.—The chairman of the Iowa state committee telegraphs the Associated Press, from DesMoines, this morning, as follows: "Returns come in slow. Large democratic gains in the interior. The state is doubtful. Republicans will not have to exceed 5,000 plurality. Democrats and greenbackers will have a majority in the lower house. Prohibition is entirely defeated. Cook is elected in the Sixth district by 1,000 majority. najority.

Dog Show at Louisville.

Louisville, October 10.—The directors of the Southern Exposition have decided to hold a great bench show of dogs, lasting five days, beginning October 13th. Arrangements will be in charge of Charles Lincoln, of New York, who has superintended many large bench shows.

THE RAILROADS.

Pool Percentages Asked-Cut Rates Yesterday.

The percentages asked for by some of the lines at the recent Louisville meeting, called for furthering the newly organized gross pool of north and south lines, were so extraordinary as to be absurd. Nothing was agreed upon because the representatives were so far apart in their esti-mates of what each road should receive, and the entire matter will have to be arbitrated in the manner provided for at the organization of the pool. Meanwhile the lines agree to maintain rates, and the percentages allowed are not to go into effect until November 1. It is said that the Big Four wants forty per cent. of the passenger business between this city and Louis-ville. In another case where there are four competing lines, one road asks seventy-five per cent.

There was a wonderful exhibition of brotherly love between I., B. & W. and Pan Handle officials yesterday. The managers and other general officers came to this city together in Mr, Henderson's I., B. & W. private car. An old timer says that heretofore when Vice-President McCullough or Manager McCrea, of the Pan Handle came to the city, the I., B. & W. left it, and vice verss. The new pool has and vice versa. The new pool has fraternized interests heretofore discordant. There was a flurry yesterday in west bound passenger rates, caused by the efforts of a large party of Quakers to obtain reduced rates to Lawrence, Kansas, where the annual meeting is in session. It was alleged that cut rates were being given them, and the Vandalia asked instructions from Mr. Dereto in Lorder illes to the property of the content o

Vandalia asked instructions from Mr. Dering, in Louisville, as to whether the cut should be made. He replied that no concession on rates should be allowed and another war was thus, probably, averted. It was afterwards claimed that the L. B. & W. received the party by returning $5 on each ticket purchased over that line at full rates at the Union depot. Mr. Bronson, of the L. B. & W., this morning denied all knowledge of any such action on the part of his company. company.

Bee Line and I. & St. L. firemen are complaining savagely because the company is using slack coal. The shortcomings of this coal for steam making purposes are well known to all railroad men, and the firemen urge that their labor is almost unbearable in "firing" with it. The Wabash deficit last year, as shown in the report to the Illinois railroad commis missioners, was $513,632.

A Munich industrial journal commenting on these rates, observes that wages in South Germany are about qual to the Berlin rates; but the iving and lodging is much less.

Former Postage Rates. It was in the midst of the war of the rebel-lion (3d March, 1883), that the act of congress was passed which established the uniform rate of three cents postage for a half-ounce letter everywhere throughout the United States. Prior to that the limit, under the act of 1855, was three thousand miles; and for any half-ounce letter to be carried further the charge was ten cents. Going behind this again to 1845, the rate was five cents for a single-sheet letter carried three hundred miles or under, and ten cents when the distance was ever three hundred miles. tance was over three hundred miles.

A resolution was referred requesting the committee on lectionary to consider the propriety of omitting from the calendar the apocryphal lesson, and substituting the canonical lessons from the scripture.

The following amendment to canons was referred: That no person shall be eligible as warden of any parish who is not a communicant, nor shall any one be qualified to act as vestryman until he has first filed a declaration that he will conform to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the church. Rev. Thomas W. Harkness, of Quincy, was sorry the impression had gone forth that his resolution of last evening, relative to christian education, was intended as a burlesque. He was not joking but seriously in earnest. He wants $100,000,000 for schools. The arrival of Canada delegates was announced to the convention.

The arrival of Canada delegates was announced to the convention.

Considerable discussion occurred over a proposition of S. Corning Judd, of Illinois, to strike from the title page of the prayer-book the words "Protestant Episcopal" and insert in their stead the words "Holy Catholic." He said he was opposed to surrendering to the Romanists that word which means universal, and declared that the Holy Catholic church protests as much against the erlic church protests as much against the errors of Rome as any church in this or any other land. The proposition was defeated by a vote of 252 to 21.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1888.

THE scratcher was abroad in the land, yes

THE scratcher, we are glad to see, has so profited by our admonitions that he needs no promptings.

THE way they voted for that prohibition amendment in Ohio is calculated to make people stop and think.

It is asserted that in thirty years in England there has been a 76 per cent. increased consumption of liquor. But part of this is due to the higher prices paid because of taxes and hence the real increase is not so great. There is also a decrease in the use of ardent spirits. The consumption of wine has increased from 252 gallons to 409 gallons per head, and that of beer from 608 barrels to 766 barrels per head.

IT looks at this writing as if Ohio had gone democratic and Mr. Hoadly been elected governor. Now should Mr. Pendleton be returned to the senate Johnny McLean's cup would indeed be full. Will somebody please tie crape on the Enquirer's door; and on the way up Vine street please stop at the Cincinnati News Journal office and say that it looks as if the Ohio democrats had begged to renew with it assurances of distinguished consider-

Is a negro family a nuisance? In Kansas a man wanted to buy the property of his neighbor, and being refused threatened to build a small house and rent it to a negro family, which he did, the said negro being a preacher. The other man brought suit on the ground that it was a nuisance. The supreme court has decided that the negro family was well-behaved and was not a nuisance, and it added: "A negro family is not, per se, a nuisance, and a white man can not prevent his neighbor from renting his home to a negro family any more than he can to a German, an Irish or French family." And yet many newspapers abused Fred Douglass's recent speech because he said there was a prejudice in this country against the negro

ATTORNEY GENERAL HORD has done a good thing-not a big one, certainly, but good as far as it goes-in setting his foot on a puerile technicality that was meant to prevent the execution of the law and the one punish ment of crime. Some lawyer thought to defeat the sentence of a convicted woman to the Reformatory, by the objection that the name of the institution in the sentence of the court was not the statutory name, and she was consequently sentenced nowhere. The attorney general says: "The sentence does not use the phrase constituting the statutory name, but it uses an expression clearly designating the institution." The clear purpose is final. The law is not to be defeated by an accidental inaccuracy of phrase. If all our legal authorities and tribunals would act on that principle we should see a new era in the criminal jurisprudence of the country. There would be fewer lynchings and fewer escapes of rich ndrels and well-defended murderers. Make the technicalities of the law give way to its spirit and purpose, and courts will cease to be the sport of shrewd lawyers and the decision of right-minded men.

CINCINNATI has been suffering a murder pidemic like unto or worse than that which has prevailed here the last few months, and thereanent the. Cincinnati News Journal is moved to make some remarks that are applicable to the condition of affairs in general, and are well worth the reflection of every good citizen. It says: "Nobody on earth receives half the protection that a red handed murderer does now "Nobody on earth receives nair the protection that a red handed murderer does nowadays. It is the murderer who expects and gets the best of everything to be had in the shape of chelter, provender, delicate handling in the press and first class counsel. He comes a foul mouthed, low minded, ignorant sneak thief, a disgrace to his species and a source of annoyance, trouble and expense to his family. This bloated, blear eyed hang dog ulcer of coward has done nothing but murder his wife in cold blood. The woman, after enduring years of misery and privation as this wretch's wife, never even raised her hand to ward off the fata blow that she had expected for months. The human fiend never could support himself, but as soon as he has bathed his hands in the blood of a weak woman he commands the services of a host of lawyers who move heaven and earth to save the brutal hell hound's worthless neck. Money comes from somewhere in abundance, and the courts are taken up for months at a time with the stuborn fight for the life of a fellow whose mission seems to be to blight everything that is sion seems to be to blight everything that is good in life and revel in the most horrible crimes in the calandar. It is no wonder that they who have murder in their hearts do not to consider the consequences.

AT least we are certain at this writing how the city election has gone-except the tie vote in the Fourth ward, and we can speak of it with reference to McMaster's election, as a notable victory for fairness and decency in politics over clique and class rule with a very vicious avowal of its purpose. We set forth many times before the election the bearing of this contest, and the city is to be felicitated upon its decision. Eliminating the personality of the two men and speaking only to what they stood for, Mr. Schmuck declared that he would use the public interests for the benefit of one class of the community only. Besides this there was behind him the free whisky clique, and in many instances blind race prejudice which sought for him votes because he was a German by birth. This was a deliberate repudiation of American citizenship, placing above it the accident of birth, and in the principle of the action spurning those who happened to be born in America, or Ireland or elsewhere than in Germany. The success of such a combination of evils, distinctly would be not merely a degradation but a danger; and in the election of Mr. McMaster who represented the principle of administering a public trust for the benefit of the whole people, and who appealed to the suffrages of his fellow citizens as an American in common with with them, no matter where they were born or what their condition or desires, but looking upon them all as equally entitled to recognition under the law-the triumph of this principle, we say, in McMaster's election is a note worthy triumph and finds cause for gratulation far deeper than the mere surface of victory.

Lieutenant Schwatka, of Arctic fame, who, with his party, was picked up by Lieutenant Ray at St. Michaels, speaking of his trip up the Yukon river, in Alaska, says they started from Fort Vancouver, W. T., May 21, being detailed by General Miles commanding the department of Columbia, to make an exploration of the valley of the Yukon. They traveled 2,800 miles overland to the strong headwaters of the river, where they constructed a raft of logs to navigate the stream to its mouth. The voyage on the raft was 1500 miles. Schwatte aleans he here here they see head. to its mouth. The voyage on the raft was 1,829 miles. Schwatka claims he has been 1,829 miles. Schwarka claims he has been farther up the Yukon than any other white man. This is denied by Signal Service Officer Leavitt, who has been stationed at St. Michaels. He says he ascended the Yukon to Fort Selkirk, 2,000 miles from its mouth.

The Fastest Steamer Afloat.

The new Atlantic steamship of the Guion Line—the Oregon—sailad from Liverpool last Saturday on her first trip to New York. She is described as a magnificent ship. There is a propriety in her name, for the wood with which she is finished grew in Oregon. It is believed that her boilers and engines are the finest ever constructed. She has been built to cross the Atlantic in five days, and on her recent trial trip she ran at a speed equal to 553 miles in twenty-four hours, and no ship ever yet made 500 miles in a day.

"HOBBIES" AT THE GRAND.

The Goodwins, we'l supported, appeared at the Grand, last night, in "Hobbies," before a large and delighted audience. "Hobbies" is called a musical absurdity. It is a farce fully as broad as it is long, and, as a play, is beneath criticism. Mr. Goodwin is one of the best of comedians, and with a play in any degree worthy his talents, could easily take and keep the first place on the American stage. Even with such trash as "Hobbies," he always draws large houses and keeps them in a roar, but a man of his genius sbould aim at something higher. To-night "A Terrible Time," fully as laughable, but of the same class as "Hobbies" will be produced to close the engagement.

Nature's Embellishments.

Nature sometimes does her prettiest work on her ugliest productions. Nothing that lives has a prettier eye than a frog, not even the gazelle or the "ox eyed Juno." The daisy is not prettier than a dog-fennel blossom, nor a tulip than the big blue tinted bell of the "jimpson weed." The brilliant colors of some kinds of snakes are proverbial, but who ever saw anything pretty in a worm? The name suggests nothing but a little ugly, writhing, crawling form, yet a worm, sometimes, or some sort of a worm is as brilliant as the richest blossoms. The vagrantreporter, the other day, strolling listlessly along one of the west side raliroads, saw what he at first took to be a bright, but not glistening, brass button under the edge of a tie. He stooped to pick it up and it unrolled into a worm about an inch long and as large as awheat straw. Laying out in the palm of his hand he saw as pretty a bit of the Creator's coloring as ever was put on anything He has made for humanity to see. Right of his hand he saw as pretty a bit of the Creator's coloring as ever was put on anything He has made for humanity to see. Right along the middle of the back, from end to end, was a band of glistening black velvet, with sides scalloped by a serrated band of equally brilliant yellow. Next to these, on each side, was a second velvet band, crossed by an infinitude of little white lines in a sort of network, and next to the legs, on each side, a white band crossed in the same way by minute black lines. Its legs were as black and shiny as if thad on velvet breeches. A Digger Indian would have thought it was pretty enough to eat and eaten it. It was pretty enough for a wandering reporter to keep, and he kept it.

The Indiana Banking Company Re-

The Indiana Banking Company Receivership.

The Journal makes an unpleasant allusion to the action of Judge Taylor in changing the receiver of the Indiana Banking company, for which there seems no fair warrant. The "shuttlecock and battledore" work has been done by the contesting parties of creditors and the court has merely ruled upon the cases brought before them. They have assumed nothing, meddled with nothing, settled nothing but the point presented first by one and then by another set of attorneys. It was no "child's play" for Judge Taylor to reinstate Mr. Landers if he thought the law gave a court no power in vacation to remove him. Whether he or Judge Walker best construed the law is a question, but there can be no question of his duty the contract when the subject of the number of the pure set of the contract of the pure set of the contract of duty to act upon his judgment of the pur-pose of the law. It was no work of his that the subject of relostating Mr. Landers came to him. That ence, and to save what certainly appeared likely to be a contest as long as the endurance of the case, he appointed a man of so high a character and such unquestioned competency that objection on any personal ground was impossible, and the objection ground was impossible, and the objection to Mr. Landers was personal. It was the surest way to suit all parties, and stop the continual teazing of the court and worry-ing of the creditors by quarrels about the re-articles. I thought this rather impertinent. I then called upon the superintendent of the Union depot. He at first entered into the matter quite heartily, but on finding that the mischlef rested with his men at the depot, he began to put me off from time to time, but finally snubbed me ourright. Now what I desire is to ascertain the time to the proper way for railroad come. if this is the proper way for railroad compa-nies to treat a lady passenger, after having received first-class fare. COURTS-CONTEMPT-POWER TO PUNISH COURTS—CONTENT—POWER TO PUNISH.

10,807, Joseph Little vs. State of Indiana.

Marion Circuit Court. Affirmed. Elliott, J.

[1.] Among the inherent powers of a court of superior jurisdiction is that of maintaining its dignity, securing obedience to its process and protecting its officers and jurors from indignity and wrong by punishment for contempt. This power may be regulated by legislation, but the legislature cannot take it away nor materially impair it. (16 Ark. 384; 64 Ill. 195; 28 Ind 47.)

[2.] Because an act is not embraced in any of the statutory definitions of a contempt it does not deprive the court of the power to punish it as a contempt, if it be such. Where one for the purpose of securing money for himself faisely pretends to another interested in the result of a cause that he can corruptly with money influ-erce the jurors trying the cause, he is guilty of a contempt of court.

The facts in this case were that a nationa bank held a junior mortgage on certain realty for a pre-existing debt, and the appeliee, as its cashier, bought a senior mortgage on the same land and took an assignment thereof to himself. This assignment made the appellee a trustee of an express trust, and he could sue without jo ning the bank. (Dan. Heg. Inst., sec. 417; Wal., 239; 23 Ind., 231; 62 Ind., 198.)

National banks may purchase real estate mortgaged to them in good faith as security for dette previously contracted. (Sec. 5137 U. S. R. S., 70 Ind., 198.) The bank had, therefore, as holding the junior mortgage, in order to protect the security afforded by the junior mortgage. (129 Mass., 138; 2 Oth., 132; 16 Kan, 341.) The payment of interest accrued. nor the promise to pay such interest as may thereafter lawfully accrue on a note, will not afford a sufficient consideration for an agreement to extend the time of payment of the note. (70 Ind., 235)

MARKET REPORT.

Report.
Interest in dry goods has largely settled upon the firmness of cotton and the increased movement of woollen goods. Eastern manu facturers of ladles' clothing and of white flan nels are sold beyond the reach of this season already. Canned goods have settled down to a steady demand with slight change in prices. Blackberries are higher; peaches are firm. No new reliable reports have been received in re gard to coffees, though the air is thick with rumors of a further inflation. Sugars are soften-ing. Cheese is not so firm for lower grades. New foreign fruits are weaker.

A Complaint About Baggage. Will you please inform me as to the rail-Will you please inform me as to the railroads: Are railroad companies responsible for baggage or not? I left Indianapolis last summer for an eastern resort: had my baggage checked through to my destination. On arrival I found that my baggage had been broken open, but as there was nothing taken out I did not say much about it; however, on returning home to Indianapolis, I found that my baggage had again been broken open, and several articles taken. On investigation, and while in conversation with one of the baggagemen at the Union depot, he (the baggageman) said that if he wished to break open any baggage he would do so, and if he wanted to break open any baggage he would do so, and if he wanted to take anything out he would do so; and added that I would not get a million dollars for the missing articles. I thought this

The remains of William Foltz, the murderer and suicide, have been shipped to Salem.

There are seventeen vacant houses on Potomac alley, the former tenants of which failed to find favor with Patrolman Lowe. He reports that there are still one or two more families that must move elsewhere.

more families that must move elsewhere.

The case of Samuel Hanway vs. the old First National Bank, for an accounting, etc., has been compromised and dismissed, the defendant paying $7,000, and both sides consenting to a mutual cancellation of all claims for or against.

Yesterday afternoon the challengers locked horns in the south precinct of the Twelfth ward, and the stubbornness increased until such well-known citizens as Israel Hoagland and Otto Boetticher were compelled to swear in their votes before the ballots were received. These gentlemen were known to be residents by every man in the ward, and the indignity put upon them was utterly uncalled for. Other gentlemen were also indiscriminately challenged, but these two were the most notable cases.

YESTERDAY'S ELECTION. Success of the Entire Republican City Ticket-Democrats Gain Six Councilmen and one Alderman-Fie for Council in the Fourth Ward.

The state of the s

The result of vesterday's city election is the success of the entire republican city ticket, but democrats gain in the council and board of aldermen. The council stands nineteen republicans and six demo-erats, while the board of aldermen has eight republicans and two democrats. The new council will have twelve democratic and twelve republican members (the result in the Fourth ward being a tie), while the new board of al-dermen will have seven republicans and three democratic members. The following are the names of the new members of the municipal

NOTES.

The travelling men lifted up Geiger's vote. The democratic horn began too blow too soon for Schmuck last night.

The present council will order a new election in the Fourth ward. It has a nominal republican majority of 100.

The republicans have a majority of at least four on the joint convention of council and board of aldermen. This insures republican city officials and boards.

The voting took a boom in the late hours yesterday afternoon and the result was a larger vote than ever before cast, save at the last presidential election.

It is understood that Benjamin's election to council in the Seventeenth ward will be contested by Hicklin, his democratic opponent. Hicklin will clain that Benjamin was not a legal resident of the ward, or even of the city.

At the session of the board of commissioners, this morning, Alderman-elect Bernhamer filed a protest regarding the vote in the Twenty-second ward, on the ground that the Clinton pasters used were so large as to cover on the democratic ticket not only the council candidate but his own name as alderman. He said privately that he would not push the protest, as it would make no difference in the result.

MODERN VARIATIONS, BY THE CHIEF SCRIBE OF THE MODEL CLOTHING COMPANY.

THE CLOTHIER AND THE SHADOW.

A dealer in Common Clothing who, for eight years, had had a monopoly of exhibiting his goods at a State Fair saw the shadow of his exhibit, greatly magnified and extended, as the sun was setting, and said: "Why should I, having a display nearly a mile long, be afraid of competition?" While he was down town counting the number of boards in his floor, a manufacturer of fine goods, in the East, opened out a superior display and took the prize. Seeing a red ribbon, he exclaimed in sorrow: "Wretched me! this overestimation of myself is the cause of my destruction." is the cause of my destruction."

THE ASS IN THE LION'S SKIN.

An Ass, having put on the Lion's skin, roamed about the forest, and was, for a long time, successful in frightening all the foolish animals he met with in his wanderings. At length a real Lion invaded the forest, and the Ass tried to frighten him also. But the Lion no soener heard the sound of his voice than he exclaimed: "I might possibly have been slightly frightened if I had not heard your bray."
